Temporary Permit

The foreigner named above has been given a temporary permit to allow him / her to work for the employer and in the occupation stated above. This temporary permit remains valid till the collection date of the work permit on the In-Principle Approval (IPA) or the cancellation date on the rejection letter. Levy will commence from the temporary permit commencement date. The levy rate will be determined after the work permit application has been processed. Please refer to the IPA letter for the levy rate payable.

2 Your Temporary Work Permit will be revoked if you do not apply for issuance by the Scheduled Date of Collection (as shown on the IPA letter, if any). Please note that the levy will cease on the date of the Temporary Work Permit revocation.

3 This foreigner must carry a copy of this letter with him / her and produce it for inspection by government officer(s) when he / she reports for work. The temporary permit does not cover his / her legal stay in Singapore which is subject to the existing Immigration Department's regulations. The conditions stated on the work permit In-Principle Approval letter and the Employment of Foreign Manpower Act, including the conditions and regulatory conditions in the Employment of Foreign Manpower (Work Passes) Regulations 2012 must be complied with.

Yours faithfully,
Controller of Work Passes
